CREAM OF NEWS.

IF IT IS NEW AND TRUE THIS COLUMN
HAS IT.

Gen. Harrison Married.—Fire at Clarksville —Struck With a Spike—Dr. Seargent Married—Attacked by a Sow.
—Andy Casey's Troubles.

Owensboro, Ky., April 8.—The Inquirer assigned to-day. The assets are about $20,000 and liabilities about $10,000. The assignment was caused by J. J. Sweeney filing suit for $2,200, which was secured by a first mortgage.

A. J. Casey, being the sole owner of all the stock and indorser for the company, also filed a deed of assignment.

Thomas S. Pettit is the assignee.
Mr. Pettit has promised that Casey, the office force and the sound-money policy of the paper shall remain the same as before the assignment.

The creditors are principally the banks. Mr. Casey thinks he will be able to pay out. He says he will not ask a compromise. He intends to pay every cent he owes.

That Morrison Groundhog.

An account was published in the Kentuckian in February of Mr.
Eugene Morrison's experience with a pet groundhog, that emerged from his winter quarters on Feb. 2, and when the sun came out broke out of a cage in which he was placed and returned to his hole in the ground.
We are sorry that we cannot vindicate the 40 day's tradition in the subsequent actions of the groundhog, but the truth must be told. The groundhog did not return to the ground for 40 days. On the contrary he returned in three days and continued to disappear and return about every three days to be fed. The groundhog is now full grown and refuses to have anything to do with Mr. Morrison, who put him in the cage on the day he saw his shadow.

Cuban Resolution Adopted.

Washington, April 6.—The House adopted the Senate concurrent Cuban resolutions by a vote of 244 to 27.
The vote was received with tumultuous cheers. The vote on the resolutions was taken in the shape of a motion to adopt the concurrent report, showing that the House congress had agreed to the Senate resolutions. The resolutions, being concurrent, do not need the approval of the President, but, of course, will be sent to him through the usual channels, so that he will receive official notification of the opinion of Congress on the Cuban question.
No Kentuckian voted in the negative.

News From the Capital of Texas.

Cadiz, Apr. 8.—Mrs. Bettie Cunningham, the wife of Thos. Cunningham, living three miles west of Cadiz, died Saturday. She was 64 years old and a member of the Baptist church. She leaves six children, all grown.

Cards will soon be out announcing the marriage of two of Cadiz's society young people, Miss Ethel Dabney, the accomplished daughter of Capt.
J. C. Dabney, and Dr. Homer Blane, a promising young physician of Cadiz. The marriage will take place at the M. E. Church on the 22 inst.
Rev. T. Hardison officiating. It will be a swell wedding.

General Harrison Married.

New York, April 6.—Gen. Benjamin Harrison and Mrs. Dimmick were married at 3:30 o'clock this afternoon at St. Thomas church. There were many distinguished guests. Mrs.
McKee and Russell Harrison, Gen.
Harrison's children, were not present, having refused to attend. They hold nothing against Mrs. Dimmick, it is said, but cannot bear the idea of any woman taking the place of their mother.

The bride received many valuable presents. The principal gift from Gen. Harrison to Mrs. Dimmick is a necklace made of seven rows of pearls. The necklace is fifty-five inches long and has diamond clasps.

In A Dying Condition.

Wm. Gibson, who was struck with a hand spike Saturday last at his home below Corydon, is reported in a dying condition. Blood continues to flow from his nose, eyes, ears and mouth. As yet the offender, Wesker, has not been arrested. He is still at his home on Gibson's farm.

The latest information from Frank Bell and Will Winfree, who left for Cuba about a month ago, is that they are still in New Orleans, looking for an opportunity to cross to the Gulf.

DR. SEARGENT MARRIED.

He Weds Miss Lizze Brown, Formerly Mrs.
Nisbet.

Last Tuesday the Kentuckian was notified by a correspondent at Crofton that a wedding was on the program for one day this week, and consequently the expected happened when Dr. Andrew Seargent procured a license early Wednesday morning and started to Crofton to be married to Miss Lizze Brown, the divorced wife of Dr. W. K. Nisbet, of Madisonville, and the only daughter of Mr.
Omar S. Brown, one of the richest men in North Carolina.

Inquiry at the clerk's office developed the fact that Clerk Prowse had held up the filing out of the register blank, though when cornered he admitted that the license had been issued. Dr. Seargent desired the matter kept a private matter, and the clerk had attempted to gratify him, not knowing that the secret had leaked out from the other end of the line. Dr. Seargent was accompanied by Dr. Preston Thomas and the marriage took place at noon in the presence of a few relatives and friends.
The officiating clergyman was the officiating clergyman.

A wedding dinner was served and the bride couple took the L. & N. train for Guthrie at 5 o'clock, passing through the city at 5:33 on their way to New York, where they will remain for two or three days, during which time Dr. Seargent will pass a post graduate course in a college of surgery. After that they will return to this city and take board at Latham.

Dr. Seargent is one of the best known physicians in the city and is a prominent Republican politician.
About twelve years ago he was married to Miss Lizze Gibb of this city, but a separation took place about a year ago and last month Mrs. Seargent obtained a divorce in the circuit court in an agreeable suit.
The present bride, like the groom, has been married before. About ten years ago she was married to Dr. W.
Nisbet, a young physician of this city, but the marriage was not a congenial one and after several years they separated and a divorce was obtained, the wife resuming her maiden name.

First District Republicans.

Paduach, Ky., April 8.—The Republican district convention met here yesterday afternoon at 3 o'clock, and the enormous attendance exceeded the most sanguine expectations, and completely filled the court room.

In addition to the ninety-six delegates there were hundreds of disinterested people present, including prominent politicians, both Democratic and Republican.

The convention was held for the purpose of electing two delegates to the national convention, which meets at St. Louis on the 16th of June, and instructing those delegates for whom to cast their votes in the national convention—whether for Bradley or Mc-Kinley.

After a stormy session the Bradley men were victorious. They adopted a platform demanding the re-establishment of the McKinley resolution, the financial plank of the last convention and endorsing Bradley in the strongest terms.
J. H. Happy and W. B. Vandell were elected delegates and instructed to vote for Bradley.

W. Mason, of Mayfield, was elected district elector with Luther Sanders, of Trigg, as alternates.

G. W. Sanders was chairman of the convention. Capt. Ed Farley, led the McKinley forces, but they were turned down at every point.

Judge Brown's Protest.

Please say to the world and all mankind that I am not the man as some think that was appointed a delegate to the Republican Convention at Madisonville. It was Esq. M. D.
Brown, known as Benton, and not M.
D. Brown, Esq. Brown is a reputable good citizen of Crofton, Ky., in this county, and was made a delegate to the Republican Convention. Some of our friends got the M. B. and M. D. mixed. Can we anything, do with as the public may think best, exile me to the Cannibal Isles, send me to China as a Missionary, send me as a Commissioner to arbitrate and settle by agreement the financial problem of the world, appoint me as Presidential elector on the Democratic ticket, elect me to the Senate in place of Judge Landis, retire me to the Antipodes, call me Colonel, accuse me of going to a base ball game or riding a bicycle have me shot at sun rise to-morrow, anything, everything, just so you do not accuse me of being in a Republican convention in Hopkinsville, Ky.

Suicide at the Asylum.
A suicide occurred at the Western Asylum yesterday morning. Wm. C.
Clark, a patient from Penrod, in Mulhennberg county, tore his sheet into strips and hanged himself to a ventilator in the wall of his room, after having tied his feet together.
When found he was dead.

The Coroner held an inquest yesterday and the verdict exonerated the authorities from blame in the matter.
Clark was a preacher and was 60 years old. He had been in the Asylum 11 years. He leaves no family.

Sight Freight Wreck.

A north-bound L. & N. freight train was wrecked one mile South of the city at 4 o'clock yesterday morning and one car was ditched and reduced to kindling wood. Several other cars were derailed. The wreck was also considerably torn up. The accident was caused by a loose brake being dropping in front of the wheels. No one was hurt. The wreck was cleared before 6 o'clock and the passenger trains arrived and they were not delayed.

A New Baptist College.

The Bethel Training School at Guthrie, established about four years ago, has been incorporated as a Baptist college to be called Walton College, for the education of both sexes.
Thos. S. Minnis was elected President of the Board of trustees. Mr.
Isaac Garrett and Rev. J. S. Cheek, of this county, are members of the Board. A Principal of the school has not yet been elected.

Two Deaths at Trenton.

Trenton, Apr. 9.—James Lunder-man, an ex-consulate of Todd county, died at his home just east of this place, Tuesday, after a long spell of illness.
Mrs. Demetrius Carnel died at her home near Barker's Mill Wednesday, aged 25 years. She was a Christian lady and beloved by all who knew her.

Trouble Over a Call.

An altercation occurred Wednesday at the residence of J. Wheeler Cayce near this city, between Mr. Cayce and a Mr. Hanbury on one side and W. S.
Boales, a cattle dealer of this city, on the other. Boales was pulled from his buggy and badly beaten up. The trouble arose from a dispute over a calf. Mr. Boales, it is said, will bring suit for damages.

Burglary at Hadenaville.

The safe in the store of R. T. Hollins & Sons, at Hadenaville, was burglarized Saturday night. The store was closed at 10 o'clock, but only $20 was secured, as the greater portion of the firm's money had been banked.
No clue to the thieves.

A Big Catch of Rats.

Mr. F. L. Waller's little boys set a trap for rats Wednesday night and yesterday morning the trap contained rats of all ages and sizes. The trap was taken over to Mr. W. A. Patten's, who lives next door, and his rat dog destroyed them one by one, and did not let a single one escape.

Court at Calliway.

Circuit Court will begin next Monday at Murray for a term of three weeks. It is hardly probable that Judge Breathitt will be well enough to preside and a special judge may have to be elected.

To Build a New Warehouse.

The L. & N. has purchased the house and lot of R. M. Anderson, corner of 6th and Railroad streets, and will erect a large warehouse on the lot.
Mr. Adams, the local agent, will occupy the residence.

An overturned lamp at Mr. W. A.
Radford's near Pembroke, caused quite a fire scare one night this week.
The fire was extinguished, but only it on the hearth rug and in a moment the carpet was in a blaze. She was in great danger of catching her clothing on fire in her efforts to put it out, before Mr. Radford could get to her rescue. The family cat happened to be in the way of the burning oil and catching fire caused a panic by jumping into the bed with the sleeping children. By retaining his presence of mind and acting promptly, Mr. Radford succeeded in averting both dangers without any real danger being done. Mrs. Radford, however, suffered an attack of nervous prostration, and it is said she has not yet entirely recovered.

The Fiscal Court.

The County Fiscal Court met Tuesday and has since been holding daily sessions.

The first two days were taken up with reports and hearing grievances of various kinds. The usual large number of applications for exemptions from the payment of poll taxes were presented and in twelve or fifteen instances the parties were released from taxation. There should be a line drawn somewhere in this sort of business and it should be drawn at able-bodied men.

Yesterday the road question was up for consideration and the Court decided to continue the present system for another year.

Eg. Barker moved that one supervisor instead of two be elected, but this was voted down and on motion of Eg. Barker the county was again divided into two districts with two supervisors at $500 each, to be in activity from April 1 to Oct. 1, and subject to orders during the other months.

While waiting for some records the Court made appropriations of $20 each for two epileptics, to buy medicine.

The election of supervisors was then gone into and on the first ballot Mr. John M. Dulin was re-elected for the northern district.

After dinner a special supervisor was elected and Mr. Herbert Dill-man was the successful applicant out of a dozen or more.

The Court went out yesterday afternoon in a body to see a new road machine at work near the city.
The workhouse matter has not yet been taken up.

THE COUNCIL MEETS.

Mr. Anderson Resigns as Member From the Fifth Ward.

The regular meeting of the city council was held Tuesday night with all of the members present. The routine business occupied most of the time.

A committee was appointed to confer with the Fiscal Court now in session relative to the workhouse matters.

It was ordered that 12th and 13th streets, from Railroad to Campbell streets, be unencumbered and orderly walks were ordered put down on the west side of Elm Street at the expense of the property owners.

The Hopkinsville Water Co. was by ordinance required to put the streets in the same good condition they were before they were torn up to lay pipes.
Since the passage of an ordinance taxing steam laundries $50 a year, a chinese laundry has been opened by Louis Sing, on Seventh Street. The ordinance was examined and found to apply to "steam" laundries only, and Councilman Ware wanted it amended to apply to the chianman.

This brought on a spirited discussion, in which the member from the Sixth ward opposed the amendment. The vote stood 5 to 2 in favor of the amendment.

Just before the Council adjourned Councilman A. H. Anderson, the member from the Fifth ward and the only Republican on the Council, announced his resignation, which was accepted. Action will be taken to fill the vacancy at some future meeting.

There are four gentlemen who are contending for the succession. Messrs. W. R.
Kennedy and J. M. Frankel, Capt. W. S.
Goodwin and Dr. B. N. Wood. All are clever gentlemen and good Democrats and any one of them would make a satisfactory councilman.

State Convention Call.

Chairman Long has called a meeting of the Democratic State Executive Committee for April 22nd, at the Galt House. They will name a day for the State Convention, at which delegates will be chosen for the National Convention, to be held in Chicago, July 7th. It is probable that the Convention will be called early in May, and as the Derby is run on the 6th of that month, this would be a very convenient time to assemble the united.

The probable candidacy of Secretary Carlisle has complicated the situation in this State. Mr. Carlisle out of the way, the free-river men would run the County by a landslide. The presence of a Kentucky candidate in the field for the presidency, however, would encourage the gold-standard men to greater efforts, and many of the free river men would refuse to oppose Carlisle through State pride. If, however, Mr. Carlisle comes into Kentucky and makes a number of speeches before the Convention, as it is said he will do, all the local feeling will be stirred up, and he will have a divided delegation at Chicago. In fact, it will take very good management to secure him the vote of Kentucky in the National Convention.—Louisville Critic.

PEASANTS STILL FLOGGED.

Toistol Denounces with Vigor a Plan for Only Partial Reform.

Count Toistol, in a characteristic letter to the Bourse Gazette, gives his views on a question which is causing considerable agitation in the mind at present in many circles of Russian official and private life—namely, that of the punishment of flogging in its various forms, says the London Standard.

The provincial sanstovs of a large number of provinces, as well as several highly placed officials in Asiatic Russia, have formally decided to petition for the exemption from this degrading penalty of all peasants who have learned to read and write. Count Toistol, with the ardent natural to the artistic temperament, cries "Shame!" upon their niggard asking, and, in an article headed with that word, very broadly hints that, while the peasant, for the last three-quarters of a century, has been steadily advancing, his masters have in some respects failed to keep their ranks in the van of the march toward civilization.

Count Toistol is a foremost authority on the life of the peasant, and the specimens he gives in this article of the abuse of the power of flogging by the small fry of officialdom are certainly striking. These insignificant members of the lower governing ranks have no uniform, but, when engaged on official duties, wear some kind of outward and visible sign of authority, generally a large medal. For speaking his mind to one of these village "elders" who happened to have the sign of office on at the time, a fellow villager was duly flogged, although his only fault appears to have been that he overlooked the medal which converted an ordinary neighborly difference of opinion into an insult to the czar! The poor fellow, Toistol relates, consoled himself with the remark that "Christ suffered stripes, and bade us suffer, too."

There are, however, many in Russia who think that the moujik is still sufficiently brutal to make the entire abolition of flogging a measure of mistaken humanity and Toistol's cry of "Shame" upon the moderate reform proposed by certain zemstvos will, doubtless, be met by the not unnatural reply that Toistol is before all a literary artist, with all the artist's native scorn for practical measures which fall short of the ideal aimed at. The partial exemption from flogging which practical men desire would certainly prove a very powerful stimulus toward popular education, even as compulsory service in the army keeps the Russian universities filled to overflowing with men who, in a large number of cases, would do the state better service in other ways than by learning discount in a sphere united to their natural capacities or station in life.

Street Crowds in Caracas.

One of the features of the city of Caracas, Venezuela, that most strongly impresses a foreigner is the rapidity with which a crowd gathers in the street. This is best exemplified when some of the many wandering musicians, in whom Caracas abounds, prepares to give an impromptu outdoor concert. Their first notes no sooner echo through the neighborhood than there gathers to listen a vast throng that almost blocks up the thoroughfare. The cobbles and all the other tenants of the entries, having no doors to open nor stairs to descend, are on the spot almost instantly. They eagerly drink in the music, but at the same time bear a wary eye upon the hats of the musicians, and no sooner do the musicians' heads appear than they observe the slightest indication that one is about to be taken off for the purpose of taking up a collection by passing it around among the crowd than they disappear even more quickly than they came.

New Sleeping Car.

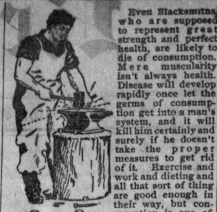

A new pattern of a sleeping coach has been brought out in England that is supposed to meet some peculiar English wants. The car is fully 52 feet long and 9 feet wide, with single-berthed and double-berthed compartments alternating, a corridor running the full length. Each passenger has room to undress comfortably and finds hooks in abundance upon which to hang his clothes, and by bolting his door can be assured of privacy.

One or the Other.

Bishop Julius, of New Zealand, is much troubled by the number of spurious coins found in the church offertories of the diocese. In a recent sermon he said: "I never saw so much bad coin in all my life. To offer to the church—the cause of God—money that the baker or the butcher would not accept shocks me. The man that would do that wants the grace of God badly—or three months."

A Fine Example.

The heirs of an estate in Los Angeles county, Cal., valued at $20,000, went to law about it some time ago, and the executor now announces that he has just 40 cents of the estate left.

Even Blackmums who are supposed to represent great strength and perfect health, are likely to die of consumption. Mere muscularity is not health. Disease will develop rapidly once let the germs of consumption get into a man's system, and it will kill him certainly and surely. The proper measures to get rid of it, however, and work and dieting and all that sort of thing, are good enough in their way, but consumption is one of the things that they won't cure. The bacillus of consumption is a living organism. It is infinitesimal, but it is alive. The only way to get rid of it is to kill it. If it is killed, it will develop and multiply. Germs are wonderfully prolific. In the quickest imaginable time, one becomes a thousand, and a thousand a million. Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery is a germ buster and a germ killer. Wherever a disease germ lurks in the body, the "Discoverer" will find it and render it harmless. It doesn't make any difference what you call your disease, or what kind of a germ it is. All germs circulate in the blood. The "Golden Medical Discovery" purifies the blood—purges it of germs—enriches it with life-giving properties. It not only kills disease, but it builds up health. It is a tonic, a nerve, or nerve-food, or invigorator and blood-purifier all in one bottle.

If you want to know all of the facts about this wonderful remedy, you want to know all about the human body, and human health, and sickness and how to get rid of it, send for Dr. Pierce's Common Sense Medical Advice. This work is a complete family doctor book and should be read by both young and old. The profits on the sale of 50,000 copies at $1.50 has rendered possible this free edition. "I do not believe in ghosts," said To Sovere for the title of his new book, "The Misfortune of a Man." "I can read that man is in trouble," she said, as she threw down the paper she had been reading.

"What is it, and what has he been doing?" he asked.

"I don't know who it is," he replied, "but he said his wife for ten dollars."

"He did?"

"Yes," he said.

"The second!"

"She looked at him in surprise."

"Are you glad that he is in trouble, too?" she asked.

"I hope that he is sent up for life," he replied, "for he has been doing it."

"Why, John, I don't suppose that you felt that way about it," she said.

"I rather thought that you would laugh at it as a good joke, or make fun of it," he said.

"It's no joking matter," he answered. "It's a crime; that's what it is. It's a crime that appeals forcefully to every true and honest man, and I am sure that you will sympathize with me."

"Oh, I'm so glad that you feel that way about it," she exclaimed.

"That's what I think, but I was afraid that you would not look upon it as a matter of such importance."

"I am glad that I did you an injustice. What would you do with him, if his punishment were left to you?"

"I would make it severe enough so that it would be a warning to others," he replied. "I don't think I would be satisfied with a term of imprisonment."

"But surely you wouldn't hang him?"

"No, I wouldn't do that. But let me tell you, Mary, any man who will deliberately fraud his fellow man in such a consequence way ought to be made to suffer, and I would be in favor of hanging him for the rest of his life. He had sold for the rest of his natural life. It is not a case for mercy," she said.

COLONIAL DAME'S WILL

She Did Not Forget Any Member of Her Household.

Mistress Lane, widow of Outbourn Fenwick, of Fenwick Manor, legislator, councillor, commissioner, died in 1660, leaving a will through which we catch glimpses of the wardrobe and toilet of a colonial lady. Her will was for her stepdaughter Teresa. She leaves the little bed, the bodice rug and the yellow curtains, besides her tafeta suit and her serge coat, all her fine linen, her hoods and gloves, her riding ring, which goes to Teresa, and to each a bed and a pair of cotton sheets. To her stepsons, Outbourn and Ignatius, an ell of tafeta; to her negro maid Dorothy, her best hair dressing ring, which goes to the new maid, all the linen of the coarse sort; to Thomas, the Indian, two pairs of shoes and a match coat; and to Thomas' mother, three yards of cotton. To Rev. Francis de la Torre, her minister, she leaves annually for five years, and to her slave William, his freedom, provided he pay a household every year to the church; and to the church, the same William, to be free forever if he shall ever leave her communion, for had not her beloved brother, William Elftensfriend and many of her dearest friends, "died by the bloody fangs of Puritan wolves?"—Philadelphia Times.

Married by Her Mother.

A very odd wedding occurred a few days ago at the residence of Rev. Carl G. Horst, minister of the Second Unitarian church of Athol, Mass. The bride was Miss Emily Altink, of Boston, and the groom was Rev. Carl G. Horst. The bride's father, Rev. Carl G. Horst, and her mother, Mrs. Mary Horst, and her sister, Martha C. Altink, mother of the bride. Cases where a father marries his daughter are not infrequent, but this is, perhaps, the only instance on record where a mother has married her daughter.

Half a Dollar a Share.

Several caravans of horses that started from Oregon for Kentucky last week were stopped at Shoshone, Idaho, by the owners, and the horses were taken from the cars and sold at 50 cents apiece. This was because the owners had to pay the heavy freight bill with what the horses would have brought in Kentucky.

Of all the people need to take a course of Hood's Sarsaparilla to take a course to prevent that run-down, debilitated condition which invites disease. The Anderson, Franklin and Salvia Pier Association has gone into liquidation, and a new company will be incorporated at the meeting of the stockholders to be held in Lawrenceburg April 20.

The latest results of pharmaceutical science and the best modern appliances are availed of in compounding Ayer's Sarsaparilla. Hence, though half-a-century in existence as a medicine, it is fully abreast of the age in all that goes to make it the standard blood-purifier.

Pests and Crops Destroyed.

Such a plague as civilized man never experienced has, during the last two years and a half, afflicted Russia. It is a plague of rats and mice. It has caused tremendous damage to property, and, in some instances, endangered the lives of the people. The pestiferous rodents have increased the pestiferous rodents in certain localities in the agricultural districts that the afflicted provinces are literally being swept clean of their grain crops. The rats, having destroyed the crops, the little animals have invaded dwelling houses and, in scores of cases, united them as places of abode. drastic measures were adopted by the government to exterminate the plague. Colonies of cats and terrier dogs were imported into the districts, but after a little while neither the cats nor the dogs would pay the slightest attention to the vermin. The government was then appealed to by the suffering people and recourse was had to scientific means of eradicating the scourge of the mice. By the employment of the following method by the government to destroy mice to inoculate the rodents with infectious disease and so successful were they that the rate and mice killed by the million. By this means the mice were finally stamped out early last summer.

The numerous stories related by Consul Hecan as to how and why, in the opinion of the people, the army of rodents swarmed over the villages; the indifference to their presence shown by both rats and dogs, and the absolute refusal of the cats and dogs to molest the rodents would hardly attract attention if it were perhaps than instructive. The peasantry believe that the mice underwent extensive migrations en masse under foreboding of impending failure of crops in those localities where the mice were abundant.

Consul Hecan says that millions of the animals were drowned in the wells and rivers, and that, therefore, the population of the afflicted country will continue to diminish because of the lack of water from the wells and to abstain from fish, particularly eels, as food, because it was discovered that they contained mice.—Tevledand Leader.

A BLAZE OF JEWELS.

Jorgescu Crown and Scepter for the Coronation of the Czsr.

The crown to be used in the coronation of the emperor at Moscow wears in shape a mitre, says the New York Herald, set with five large diamonds and the pear-shaped ruby, the finest in the world. All the other gems used in the decoration are pure white diamonds and pearls. These stones represent the "making of the living of the crown is of pure velvet."

This crown was made in Geneva at the command of Catherine II., and is valued at $1,000,000 rubles.

This scepter to be used was made at St. Petersburg by Emperor Paul I. 1797, and it is the finest that the world has ever seen. It is surmounted by the famous Orloff diamond. The orb is of solid gold, set with a triple row of diamonds around its base. A second shaped diamond. The diamond cross is supported by a sapphire tower a fabulous price.

The collar, star and jewel of the empire. "Andrew," which the emperor will also don, is ornamented with five pink diamonds and two Siberian aquamarines, one blue and one green, set in diamonds. The decoration is valued at more than 100,000 rubles.

The czarina will wear the state coronet, the necklet of which contains huge single diamonds, from which are pendant rare jewels, among others, the most costly ever made. In addition to the state jewels the empress will wear all the exquisite gifts of jewelry which her husband has given to her since their marriage.

Labouchere's Mistake.

Henry Labouchere tells of an awkward mistake he made about Persia. "Napoleon III." said good-bye to the "maker of the Second Empire." His appearance was plainest, and when the London editor saw him at an evening reception he took him for a waiter and asked for his name. "Labouchere," he answered humbly went up to say, "Mr. Labouchere," and I was knocked into a heap at seeing his grand coronation of the legation of honor, but kept down my confusion and got into a rattling talk with him.

Obstinacy.

There is something in obstinacy which differs from every other passion. It covers, but either breaks like iron or crumbles sulkily away, like a fractured arch. Most other passions have their period of fatigue and rest, their sufferings cease, they leave no resource, and the first wound is mortal.—Johnson.

FRIDAY, APRIL 10th, 1896.

Gen. Jno. B. Castelman is one man in Louisville who seems to have a mind not "made up" for him in Wall street. He is a candidate for district delegate and was interviewed by the Times this week on the question of Secretary Carlisle, who thinks he is running for the Democratic nomination for President. Gen. Castelman, however, remembered that remark of Mr. Carlisle's at Covington last summer and gave the following significant response:

"Upon that point I wish that I have very high authority for wishing to vote exactly as I please. My authority is Mr. Carlisle himself. If, however, you wish to go further informed, I am for the man who stands the best chance for election, a Kentuckian first."

It is well enough to remember in this connection that both Matthews and Stevenson are Kentuckians, and that Gen. Castelman was one of the warmest supporters of Stevenson for Vice President in the last convention. Gen. Castelman's interview needs a diagram.

The Louisville Post recently sent out a letter to county chairmen asking them to state their opinions of Mr. Carlisle's availability as a presidential candidate and also their ideas of the chances for success in the State next fall. Of 40 replies given last Monday, 26 were favorable to Mr. Carlisle, 12 against him and 2 non-committal. Some of the staunch Democrats were bitter towards the Post, one of them telling it that it belonged in the Republican party and had no business to be meddling in Democratic affairs.

The Owensboro Daily Inquirer passed into the hands of an assignee Wednesday. This well known journal was a Democratic afternoon paper, owned principally by Mr. A. J. Casey and edited by Col. Geo. V. Triplett. The paper was supposed to be a paying basis and the failure was a surprise to the public. Mr. Casey will have the sympathies of his brethren of the press in his troubles.

The Covington Commonwealth, Mr. Carlisle's home paper, is out against him and will make him fight for his life in his own town. The Commonwealth says:

"Mr. Carlisle's newspaper support is confined to the Louisville Post, venomous; the Louisville Times, sardonic; and the Courier-Journal, wobbly."

It is not quite so bad as that. "The Paducah Standard, interested," might have been added.

The Cuban resolutions have been sent to the President and he is expected to issue a proclamation recognizing the belligerency of the Cuban patriots. It is not necessary for him to sign the resolution, but if he fails to take official notice of the recognition, the matter will be taken up again by Congress in some shape or other.

There is a wide difference in the claims of the Bradley and McKinley factions in Kentucky. The Commercial claims that the delegates so far chosen stand 853 for Bradley and 518 for McKinley, while the McKinley leaders say McKinley has 505 and Bradley 475. Lively times are expected in the State convention next week.

Leigh Bros. & Wilhelm have brought suit against the Standard Publishing Company for a forfeiture of $500 for the failure to transfer the paper on April 1st as contracted. The sale is now off and Leigh Bros. & Wilhelm will start a new morning daily with a first-class outfit.

Ed T. Franks, who will be nominated for Congress by the Republicans, at Madisonville, next Monday, is like Dr. Clardy a member of the Baptist church. Mr. Franks belongs to the First Baptist church of Owensboro.

Congressman Hendrick says Congressmen Owens will hold his seat. It would be interesting to know what Mr. Hendrick thinks about his own seat.

The Louisville Post published a fake interview with Dr. Clardy Tuesday in which he was made to say: "I think Mr. Carlisle's letter a very wise one. It will rob the opposition of its sting and unite the various factions in his own state. There has never been any doubting in my mind that he would get Kentucky behind him. He has not declined the nomination, and I believe that the convention will give it to him. It was the strongest letter that he could have written."

In a letter to the Kentuckian Dr. Clardy says he has not been interviewed by the Post correspondent and he doesn't even know what he has been represented as having said. In the Owensboro Messenger, he also repudiated the interview, which was a fake pure and simple. The fact that it appeared in a sheet of the character the Post "enjoys" was enough to discredit the statement, without a formal denial from the gentleman misrepresented.

Both of the Louisville afternoon papers, the Times and the Post, are "writing up" the "boys" of the country press and giving double column pictures of the subjects. In view of the fact that:

"The love of praise moves men to do as they are told and gives in every heart," These departments are proving to be very interesting ones to the members of the press and their friends.

The Louisville Daily News, Brent Atchison's new paper, is a well printed and neatly arranged eight column folio sold for one cent a copy, or $3.00 a year. It is independent politically, but will advocate the single gold standard.

The Harrison wedding cake was a pyramid made by piling cake upon cake until the top one was no larger than a small plate, while the base was as large as a cart wheel. It was made last fall and cost $250.

Speaker Crisp and Secretary Smith have resumed their joint debate and 4000 people heard them at Newman, Ga., Tuesday. They met again to-day at Albany.

The fight for silver in Missouri and Tennessee is now in advance. Hardly a county convention has been held that has not declared for bimetalism and unsharpened Democracy.

The Courier-Journal published the opinion of seventeen Kentucky papers on Mr. Carlisle's candidacy and they stand nine for and eight against him.

The Paducah News has lined up with the Stalwart Democrats in the fight for bimetalism.

The Olympic Games.

The preliminary events have been contested for in the restored Stadium at Athens, Greece and it is evident that the revival of the Olympic games will surpass even the expectations of those who have worked so hard and persistently for a revival of the sports and games of ancient Greece. The opening day more than met all promises. The throng was immense, the contestants came from all portions of the world, and there was a most auspicious beginning of what in the future will be the grand international contests in these athletic sports, a revival which will elevate true athletes sports and place them upon the high plane they should occupy.

The United States carried off the laurels in the preliminary contests, the representatives from Princeton and Boston winning the events they tried for, and with this good record to their credit they will almost certainly win on Friday next, when the final tests are to be made.

Every lover of manly sport, every advocate of true athletics, every one wishing to elevate the tone of outdoor recreation can but be rejoiced that the Olympic revival has received such encouragement and support.—American.

Mr. W. H. Cooke and Mr. J. D. Blakeman will have a fine silver side of the question, while Mr. J. R. Kirby and Mr. D. C. Amos will speak for the single gold standard.

A public debate on the currency question will take place at Smith's Grove, Warren county, to-day.

The Cadiz Telephone is coming around all right on the money question. It has been more or less time, but an editorial statement appeared in yesterday's paper defining its present position. After explaining that the management of the Telephone has undergone a partial change within the last six years, the present editor declares that he stands on the 1892 platform as it was interpreted at the time and adds this paragraph:

"The financial plan of the Democratic platform of 1892, on which we stand, does not discriminate against either gold or silver. It demands the coinage of both at the mint free of charge, and that all money shall be maintained at and pass current at its face value by the Government. The doctrine is good. It is sound and won for the Democracy the grandest victory of the age."

WILL BE A GREAT SHOW.

Tennessee Centennial Exposition at Nashville.

Its Great Buildings Now in Process of Construction.—To Commemorate the Admission of the Prosperous Southern State to the Union.

(Special Nashville (Tenn.) Letter.)
The people of Tennessee are making great preparations for the proper celebration of the centennial anniversary of the admission of their state into the union. This great historic event will occur June 1; and thousands of loyal Tennesseans will gather on that day at Nashville, the state capital, to witness grand military and trade pageants and gorgeous fireworks and illuminations. The celebrations planned in honor of the day and occasion will be unique. Artists and merchants will vie with each other to make every feature memorable; and this happy combination of brains and money gives assurance that visitors from outside of the state will be amply repaid for undertaking a journey to the south for the purpose of witnessing the proposed display.

The region which now constitutes the state of Tennessee was claimed in early work on the main buildings is progressing at a gratifying pace. The main structure, called the Commerce building will be 501 by 235 feet in size and all its outer uprights are already in position. The Pantheon, or Art building is nearly under roof. This is a thoroughly classic structure, and will be guarded by a heroic statue of Athena, the work of Miss Euid Yancell, a Louisville (Ky.) artist, now residing at Paris.

The Transportation building has advanced to the completion of the frame work, and the Administration building is ready for the staff. The Women's building and the Auditorium are under roof and ready for the trimmers. Plans for the Agricultural building are now in the hands of the management, which some time ago, offered a prize for the best design for this structure. It is the aim of the exposition people to make the Agricultural building and its contents the principal points of interest at the fair. A children's building will be erected before the exposition opens. The exposition grounds cover 100 acres, in a delightful location. Landscape gardeners of note have been employed to enhance the natural beauties of the site, and have persuaded the management to add a noble hill and an adjacent park to the grounds. A small lake, about four acres in extent, already filled with water, ends in a graceful waterfall at a point where the main entrance is to be located. Another lake, 15 acres in extent, is also nearly completed. Banks of shrubbery and groups of trees have been planted at desirable points in addition to about 600 trees already on the grounds. The roads and walks are macadamized and will soon receive a top surface of Kentucky asphalt.

Amusement features will be numerous, but probably not quite as "lively" as those seen at Chicago and Atlanta.

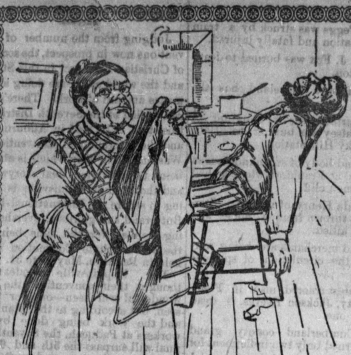

THE TENNESSEE CENTENNIAL—WOMAN'S BUILDING.

Nashville wants to do the "proper thing" in the management of the exposition as though the management would succeed in giving to the country an exposition at once unique, complete and more interesting than any ever held in the United States, excepting, of course, the great Chicago fair.

The people of Hopkinsville will be given a chance on next Monday night, April 19th, of hearing the famous California Poet Humarid, Ferd Emerson Brooks. The music of his voice is apparent from the fact that he is a fine baritone, never permits himself to sing, preferring to confine himself to his special delivery of his own poems. The evening of his own poems, the human voice that he does not seem equal to.

There is no passion or feeling he does not portray, nor does he, at any time, sound of animals about the farmyard he does not imitate. And with all he has such a delightful personality and such a charming character, standing nearly six feet and weighing nearly 200 pounds, he is so commanding and graceful in his delivery that one cannot but be charmed and follow him with such delight and pleasure that the two hours are gone before you know it.

Don't fail to hear him. Get your seats reserved without extra charge at Egin's drug store. General admission 50c, children 25c.

Gladness Comes

With a better understanding of the transient nature of the many physical ills, which vanish before gentle, gentle efforts—pleasant efforts—rightly directed. There is comfort in the knowledge that so many forms of sickness are not due to any actual disease, but simply to a constipated condition of the system, which the pleasant family laxative, Syrup of Figs, promptly removes. That is why it is the only remedy with millions of families, and is everywhere esteemed so highly by all who value good health. Its beneficial effects are due to the fact that it is the one remedy which promotes internal cleanliness without debilitating the organs on which it acts. It is therefore all important, in order to get its beneficial effects, to note when you purchase, that you have the genuine article, which is manufactured by the California Fig Syrup Co. only and sold by all reputable druggists.

If in the enjoyment of good health, and the system is regular, laxatives of other remedies are then not needed. If afflicted with any actual disease, one may be commended to the most skillful physicians, but if in need of a laxative, one should have the best, and with the well-informed everywhere, Syrup of Figs stands highest and is most largely used and gives most general satisfaction.
